Keith Schrameyer (Defendant) appeals the summary judgment order of the Circuit Court of Jefferson County forfeiting $2,439. Defendant claims that the circuit court erred by granting summary judgment because: (1) Defendant presented sufficient admissible evidence contravening the evidence offered by the State (Plaintiff); and (2) Defendant “proved” that the money seized was legitimately derived and not subject to seizure.

AFFIRMED.

Division Two Holds: Defendant failed to demonstrate a genuine issue of material fact and the circuit court did not err by granting summary judgment for Plaintiff.
